A photograph showing a group of people harvesting ferns in a narrow street between white buildings. The ground is covered with harvested ferns. A man in a white shirt and dark pants is on the left, holding a large bundle of ferns. A woman in a black dress is on the right, bending over to pick up ferns. Other people are visible in the background, also harvesting. A ladder is leaning against a building in the distance.

A group of people, mostly women, are dancing in a square at night. They are in front of a white church with a bell tower. A large, dark, leafy tree is in the center of the square. The ground is paved with cobblestones. The church has a bell tower with two arched openings, one of which is lit. The scene is illuminated by streetlights and the church's lights.
